

VENDOR PROFILE

Meadowvale is a dairy, making frozen dessert mixes for 40 years and have been supplying mix to our classes for about 5 years. Their website is worth visiting with a virtual tour of their plant and a list of their higher profile customers. They create 5 frozen custard mixes and also mix for the soft serve and hard ice cream industry.

The boys at Meadowvale state,

At Meadowvale, we've been helping our clients make magic for nearly 40 years. What's our secret? We believe if you build an employee owned company, staff it from top to bottom with people passionate about exceeding your expectations, people who continue to innovate and learn every facet of your industry and along the way add a dollop of hard work...you get magic!

Frankly, not everyone is as dedicated to serving their customers the finest product they can produce. But if you're as determined to dazzle your customers as we are then call us today because we believe everyone deserves a little magic!
